- 13) as directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by the defendant's criminal record or personal history or characteristics and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such notification requirement.

DEFENDANT: Richard Williams
CASE NUMBER: Criminal No. 10-105-1

ADDITIONAL PROBATION TERMS

1. Defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.
2. Defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device or any other dangerous weapon.
3. Defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.
4. Defendant shall participate in a program of testing and, if necessary, treatment for substance abuse as directed by the probation officer, until such time as defendant is released from the program by the probation officer. Further, defendant shall be required to contribute to the costs of services for any such treatment in an amount determined by the probation officer but not to exceed the actual cost. Defendant shall submit to one drug urinalysis within 15 days after being placed on probation and at least two periodic tests thereafter.
5. Defendant is permitted to possess and/or use a computer and is permitted access to the internet. Defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware/software to monitor any computer or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by defendant to confirm his compliance with this condition. Defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation officer. Further, defendant shall consent to periodic unannounced examinations by the probation officer of any computers, cell phones or other electronic communication or data storage devices that defendant has access to in order to confirm defendant's compliance with this condition. Additionally, defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation officer based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions imposed in this case or based upon reasonable suspicion of unlawful conduct by defendant. Defendant's failure to submit to the monitoring and search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by him may be grounds for revocation.
6. If defendant's employment requires the use of a computer, he may use a computer in connection with the employment approved by the probation officer, provided defendant notifies his employer of the nature of his conviction. The probation officer shall confirm defendant's compliance with this notification requirement.
7. Defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with accurate information about his entire computer system (hardware/software) and any other electronic communication or data storage devices or media to include all passwords used by defendant and the name of his Internet Service Provider(s). Defendant also shall abide by the provisions of the Computer Restriction and Monitoring Program approved by the court.
8. Defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, business or place of employment to a search conducted by a United States probation or pretrial services officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to a search pursuant to this condition.
